

/ US Dispute Resolution

Asserson's US Dispute Resolution department has more experience, resources and familiarity with US disputes than any other litigation group in Israel.

We have a history of success at all levels of the judicial and arbitration process and regularly represent clients in complex, multi-jurisdiction and high-value matters.

The Asserson Advantage:

Location – With offices in Tel Aviv, New York and London we are able to cater to clients around the world, across borders and time zones. Having an office in Tel Aviv enables us to provide our clients in Israel with a local presence and face-to-face service.

International Experience – Our team regularly manages cross-border disputes for clients including those where litigations are pending simultaneously in both the US, UK and Europe.

Cost Efficiency – Our unique experience with both the UK and US system has taught us that it is often better for the client to resolve a dispute at an early stage, before legal costs unnecessarily escalate.
